First Friend

Christobel Mattingley

Illustrated by

Craig Smith

PLOT SUMMARY

Kerry is a little bewildered by how different things are on her first day at a new school. But she soon finds old friends in her favourite books in the school library and a real live friend Black Dog.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Christobel Mattingley was born in SA in 1931 and died in 2019, and is the author of more than 50 books, 47 of which were for children. After publishing her first book, The Picnic Dog, in 1970, Mattingley went on to win numerous awards for her work including the Children's Book Council of Australia (CBCA) Children's Book of the Year Award in both the Younger Readers and Picture Book categories, and an Australian Human Rights Award commendation for No Gun for Asmir. Her work has been translated into other languages, won various awards in Australia and the USA, and has been made into films for ABC Television. In 1990 she received the Advance Australia Award for Service to Literature, and in 1996 she was made a Member of the Order of Australia for her service to literature, particularly children's literature, and for community service through her commitment to social and cultural issues.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Craig Smith's warm, exuberant illustrations have delighted children for more than thirty years. Craig has several award-winners to his credit and his titles appear regularly on Children's Choice Award shortlists. Finding humour in domestic, family and school situations, and a fondness for unusual perspectives and energetic characterisation are features of his work.

Questions

1. Have a look at the cover of this book (including the title) – what does it tell us about the story inside?
2. How do the illustrations help to tell the story?

Activities

1. Can you tell us in one sentence what First Friend is all about?
2. Think about your first day at school or your first day at a new school and make a list of words that help describe how you felt, e.g.:
 1. Scared
 2. Worried
 3. Nervous
 4. Excited
 5. Curious
 6. Happy
3. What were some of the things that happened during that day that were new to you?

4. Make a list of some of the things that were new to Kerry when she started in her new school:
 1. New teacher
 2. New ways of doing things such as working on your own rather than sharing an activity (p 14) and a bigger library (p24)
 3. Finding her way around the school
5. List all the different ways Kerry makes new friends when she starts her new school. Use the following categories:
 1. Teachers
 2. Children
 3. Library
 4. Books in the library
 5. Dog
6. Tell us about the friends in your life. They can be two legged, four legged or they can be things, such as toys, books etc.

WRITING STYLE

Questions

1. Christobel Mattingley has written a first chapter book. How many chapters are there in this story?
2. The story arc goes a bit like this:
 1. Introducing the characters
 - Introducing Kerry and her family and then her school community
 2. Introducing the major theme of the book
 - Kerry is starting at a new school which means finding new friends and adjusting to a whole new environment
 3. Introducing a problem
 - Kerry finds it all a bit daunting – things are done differently, the school is much bigger than her last one and to top it off, there's a large dog and she's scared of dogs!

4. Solving the problem and ending the story

- Kerry takes comfort in finding books that are like old friends to her – no matter where she is, the books feel familiar.
- The dog helps Kerry to navigate her way around the school and the children and teachers look out for her and encourage her to play.

Activities

1. Write a short story (with any theme) and see if you can use a similar story arc – introduction of characters and plot, problem, problem solution and conclusion
2. Draw some illustrations to complement your short story.
3. Create a storyboard to reflect the story arc of First Friend
